A DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER'S

Account of the Way Boodle was Used Openly on the Streets-High Handed Ontrages -- Republicans Driven from the Polls---Beaten By Tammany Toughs and Their Tickets Torn Up. And Yet Democrats Hall Flower's Election as a Glorious Triumph of Principle!

NEW YORK, Nov. 5 .- Some idea of the methods used by Tammany on election day in the city of New York' to elect Roswell P. Flower governor may be gained from the following account of certain street scenes. It is taken from the New York Herald, the leading Democratic paper in the city, but which is opposed to the means adopted by Tammany and exposes them whenever opportunity offers:

Patriotic Americans who have some notion of a free and honest ballot should hotion of a free and honest ballot should have watched the progress of the election in the Eighth Assembly district.

They would have seen things to amaze them.

"Silver Dollar" Smith, eye gouger, Alderman, bully and indicted law breaker, stoed on the streets and paid for votes as openly as he would pay for peanuts.

The leaders of the opposition saw what he was doing, for even a casual observer who passed along the street could hardly be blind to it; but although they were being deprived of an election by bold-faced fraud, no one dared complain. plain.

THE EYE GOUGER AT WORK.

The polling place at No. 79 Ludlow street was Smith's particular haunt yesterday. He swaggered up and down the sidewalk and handed out money right and left. Wherever he went a trail of seedy looking outcasts followed him like a pack of wolves. They hung at his elbows and dickered with him for their votes. Two dollars was the ruling market price in the morning. The experienced lodging house inmates who have been through elections before held off for more. By 1 o'clock some of them were getting three and five dollars. terday. He swaggered up and down THE EARLY BRIBER CATCHES THE VOTE,

Mr. Galgano protested vigorously against this and was struck several times by Reilly and knocked down. To add to the outrage he and not the bully who assaulted him was then arrested on a charge of assault and arraigned before Police Justice Divver in the Tombs. Jared G. Baldwin, jr., who was on hand as the legal representative of the Republican club, took up promptly the case of Mr. Galgano and Joseph Gallo, the Republican candidates for assembly in the district, and a well known business man was present and offered to furnish the $1,000 bail which was demanded. Although he swore that he owned a house worth $10,000, Divver refused to accept his bond. Then Mr. Gallo's brother, Samuel Gallo, who does business at No. 4 Marion street, appeared and showed that he owned the house No. 418 East One Hundred and Pourteenth street. The police justice would not accept him either. Mr. Baldwin then went to the supreme court chambers and made application to Judge Lawrence for a writ of habeas corpus, which he agreed to grant if Justice Diver would waive his jurisdiction. In this way valuable time was wasted, and at 3:30 o'clock Mr. Galgano was released, having being detained in custody more than five hours.

having being detained in custody more than five hours.

"This," said Mr. Gallo, "loses for Fassett 300 votes in the Third district. What do you think of that?"

James Tobin, of No. S Caroline street, was brought into the Tombs, protesting loudly against his arrest on a charge of alleged disorderly conduct. He was held in $200 bail. This was another petty piece of tyranny, and Mr. Tobin made that fact known by saying: "It is because I am an Irishnan, and have been found working energetically and loyally for the Republican party, that I have been persecuted in this way."

ASSAULT UPON ASSAULT.

ASSAULT UPON ASSAULT. The polls in the Seventeenth election district of the IId Assembly District, at No. 9 Baxter street, were all day in the possession of a gang of disorderly Tammany ruffians, led by Daniel J. Kourke, a liquor dealer, and including among the number such men as Michael J. Farrell and James Smith. The crowd jostled, bullied and intimidated every man they could identify as a Republican voter, About 9 o'clock John Vroman, a Republican and old soldier from Schoharie county, who served four years in the Third New York Cavalry, went to the voting place, secured his tickets, went into the booth and folded them. He took his place in line, and when his turn came to vote was told that his tickets were wrongly folded. He returned to a booth, folded them and again took his place in the line. He had been, by that time, identified as a Republican, and to him had been offered's to vote the Tammany ticket, which No. 9 Baxter street, were all day in the

He was then jostled by Tammany ruffians, dragged outside by them in spite of his appeals to the police officers for protection, hustled down the street, struck in the face and violently dumped into a Third-avenue horse-car. His tickets were torn out of his hand and thrown away. Edwin Percival, of Brewster, N. Y., a Republican, who was in the car, asked him what the matter was, and, upon hearing, brought h,m down to the Tribune office to ascertain what could be Tribune office to ascertain what could be done. The business manager of the Tribune went at once to No. 9 Baxter street with Mr. Vroman and Mr. Percival. The moment they were recognized they were set upon by the Tammany mob, shoved out of the voting place, howled and jeered and pulled clear across the street. Mr. Hall then went to Republican headquarters, took out a commission as a watcher, secured from Captain Brooks the aid of a roundsman and returned to the polls with Mr. Vroman, determined to ascertain whether a qualified voter

As early as half-past five a. m. one of them came into the house of Kopel Burger, who lives at No.150 Rivington street, and, showing him $3, said he could have that if he would promise to yote for Smith. Burger declined on the ground that he was not taking bribes.

"Well, then," said the heeler, "I'll give it to your little girl here for a present and you can vote for Smith, because you think he is the best man."

But Bulger would not let the little girl louch the money and the man went away. Samuel Burger, of No. 128 Forsyth street; Benjamin Schwertz, of No. 177 Chrystie street, and many others were approached in the same way.

About thirty men came to the office of the Arbeiter Zeitung, No. SI Ludlow street, during the day and exhibited money which they said Shitch had given to them to vote for him. In every case they said they had put the money in their pockets and voted the socialistic leader of the district, tried to get these men to lay charges against Smith and secure his arrest. At the first suggestion they fied precipitately. They had seen so much of police persecution at Smith's instigation, Mr. Cahan said, they lived in deadly terror of the burly thug.

He was taken to the Tombs, where fortunately the Republican club had stationed Jared G. Baldwin, Jr., and the Municipal League had stationed R. W. G. Welling, lawyers. Justice Diver was obliged to dismiss the charge on the set. Mr. Vennus hes recently of the ballot law forbids electioneering within the precincts of the polling place and positively prohibits candidates from going into a polling place, except to deposit their own votes.

I saw "Silver Dollar" Smith, who is a candidate for aldorman, lounging fifteen minutes at a time in the polling place at No. 79 Ludlow street, and most of the time when he was not inside he was standing at the door plying his trade with votes. The policemen did not offer to interfere. Inside Mr. Smith talked with voters and inspectors as much as he liked and watched the men whose votes he had purchased.

THE SAME STORY EVERYWHERE. At nearly all the other polling places in the district the laws were disregarded as openly. At the place in Hester street, between Chrystie and Forsyth, the heelers for the John J. O'Brien As-sociation were allowed to go into the booths with voters and assist them in preparing their ballots. Altogether it was the worst election that even the Eighth district heads.

The above from the Democratic Herold will furnish food for thought to those Democrats who grow enthusiastic over the news from New York, and hail the result as a glorious triumph of Democratic principles. It is rather a triumph of the most corrupt political society on the face of the earth (Tammany) and which has the Democratic party of New York State by the throat.
Now, it is reaching out for the control of the nation.

So much for the Herald's account of the methods by which its own party These are only a few samples of the scoundrelly behavior of the lawless and brutal ruffians whom Tammany employed to prevent decent citizens in the downtown districts casting anti-Tammany ballots. Cune for Crour.—Use Dr. 'Thomas' Eclectric Oil according to directions. It is the best remedy for all sudden attacks of colds, pains and inflammation, and inuities. One of the most outrageous pieces of "bullying" and tyrannical obstruction to Republican votes on the part of Tammany heelers and so-called election captains during the polling yesterday was the conduct of Reilly, who was looking out for the interest of the Fourteenth street boodlers. The trouble was in the Eighth election district of the Thr d assembly district. The voting place was at Spring and Mott streets. Guiseppi Galzano, a properly commissioned Republican watcher, was doing energetic work all day for the loval ticket headed by J. Sloat Fassett. He was bringing up his fellow countrymen in a way that surpassed the Tantmany ruffians, who got inside the rail.

ROYAL VICTIMS

Of the Bankrupt Bankers in Berlin-The Empress One of the Losers.

Berlin, Nov. 5 .- The suspension yesterday of the firm of Hirschfeld & Wolf, the bankers, of this city, caused a sensation in financial circles, but it was as nothing to the developments to-day. It was reported at the time the failure was announced that the Empress of Germany and Prince Henry, of Prussia, were liable to lose a large amount by the failure, and that the minister of public worship, Dr. Von Gossler, had lost his entire fortune, and that many members of the most aristocratic families were involved in the firm's troubles.

illes were involved in the firm's troubles. Under such eircumstances a rizid investigation into the affairs of Hirschfeld & Wolf was only natural.

This inquiry into the banker's business methods commenced yesterday, and resulted this morning in the arrest of Herr Wolf, head of the firm of Hirschfeld & Wolf, on a charge of a most serious nature, the particulars of which have not yet been made public. This financial upheaval is the only thing being talked about to-day in Berlin and further and more startling delin and further and more startling de-velopments are expected when the full facts become known. The amount of the firm's liabilities is not yet known, but it is understood that it is very big.

REMOVE THOSE STONES.

They May Be for the Public Use and They

May Be to Crack Skulls. Conk, Nov. 5 .- Dr. Charles Tanner, M. P. for Mid-Cork, called to-day upon the sheriff of Cork and entered a formal protest against the quantity of stones laid about in the streets, ostensibly for repairing purposes. Dr. Tanner bly for repairing purposes. Dr. Tanner called attention to the fact that in view of polling to-morrow in the election to be held for a successor in parliament to the late Mr. Parnell, these stones might be used with deadly effect on the supporters of Mr. Martin Flavin, the McCarthylie, and Mr. John E. Redmond, Parnellite. Dr. Tanner declared that he would haive an inquiry made into matter, and if it be discovered that the stones had been laid in the street with an ulterior object he would insist upon the dismissal of the city engineer who was responsible for having them placed was responsible for having them placed about the city.

CORK, Nov. 5 .- On the eve of the poll in Cork the canvassing is being carried on with redoubled energy on every side. According to an unbiased forecast the result will be in favor of the anti-Parresult will be in favor of the anti-Par-nellite candidate by a majority of 900 votes. Patrick O'Brien, M. P., at a meeting to-day declared that William O'Brien, in a conversation with him when the O'Shea divorce proceedings were pending, promised to adhere to Parnell whatever the bishop's did.

and the Municipal League had stationed R. W. G. Welling, lawyers. Justice Divver was obliged to dismiss the charge on the spot. Mr. Vroman has grounds for the prosecution of the Tanmany gang who by coercion attempted to deprive him of his yote. There was one yote for Fassett, however (if it ever got into the box), in the Seventeenth election district of the Second assembly district, whether any more got in or not. Wong Chin Foo, the well known Cainaman, was arrested and held in the Tombs in $500 bail on a charge of having illegally registered from No. 11 Pell street, when it was asserted that on his own admission he lived elsewhere. Wong didn't try to yote, though.

At No. 53 Baxter street, the Seventeenth election district of the Second Assembly district, Charles H. Foote, a colored man, of No. 103 Leonard street, had great difficulty in yoting. Dan Rice, a Tammany heeler, struck him several times and urged on his fellowheelers to jostle and assault a dozen or more colored men who found the booth practically in possession of the Tammany gang. The policeman, instead of arresting Rice, battered Foote and the other Republican victims with his club. Indianapolis, Nov. 5.—Brownburg, Ind., a town fifteen miles west of here, this morning suffered the most disas trous fire in its history. Several business blocks and a number of residences destroyed. Total loss, $25,000; insurance, $5,000.

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derivo from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes that tired feeling, creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

Fagged Out

"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and misary strength rea me and rich sick and mis-erable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business.
